LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

FIRE IN UNIONTOWN .- Last night a row of three or four small frame dwellings located in Uniontown, were totally destroyed by fire. It is supposed to have been the work of an incendiary. There was no possible means of extinguishing the fire, and but few of the neighbors knew any thing of it until this morning. Uniontown is but commenced. The land formerly belonged to Enoch Tucker, Esq , is situated on the Maryland side of the Eastern branch, and was purchased by Messrs. Fox, Van Hook and Dobbler, who divided it into building lots and sold to various persons, and some of them have commenced building. The finished buildings belong to Messrs. T W. Perkins, H. Martin, and a gentleman whose name we could not ascertain, but who lives in this city, and owned the burnt row. There is a'so a smithshop standing, belonging to Lloyd Jenkins. The ramor this morning that all of Uniontown, except two houses and a smithshop, was burned last night, startled those who did not know which town was referred to.

A BEAUTIFUL NEW SHOE STORE-Is that just opened by Mr. George Burns, on Pennsylvania avenue, next above Patterson's drug establishment. The whole interior of the place as it formerly existed in the hands of cur venerable friend, George Savage, has been remodelled and enlarged, being lighted in the rear by a handsome sky light, and extended with a wing into Ninth street, from whence there is an additional entrance. One portion of this magnificent new bazzar is appropriated es a salesroom for the accommodation of the College. At the Methodist church there was ladies, who will find in it everything in the way of gaiters, boets, slippers, shoes and overthoes for the sex, that good taste or the fashion now demands. Mr. Burns' assortment of boots and shoes for the other sex too, is fault- church in the morning to hear Rev. Dr. Balch. less and apparently as large and varied as any other similar stock of goods in the District of regular pastors. The dwellers in our city

WAR AMONG THE DOCTORS -There is an old axiom which says that "When doctors disagree, who shall decide?" This problem is now likely to be solved. A professional gen-tleman, by the name of Dr. Stoddard, has just arrived in this city, and proposes shortly to call a public meeting, to be held in one of our largest halls, for the purpose of showing that the system, generally adopted by the faculty in the treatment of diseases, is altogether fallacious; and, by way of proving the correctness of his principles, he invites persons afflicted with the ague and fever, rheumatism, gout, &c., to present themselves there on the night of the meeting, when he will, without charge, cure them in the space of sixty seconds. Wonders will never cease.

PREPARE FOR WINTER .- The most beautiful and varied invoice of furs ever exhibited in this city is now on exhibition at the hat and fur establishment of Mr John T. Evans, on the north side of Pennsylvania avenue, between Twelfth and Thirteenth streets. Among | fying their hall. them is something to suit the taste and means of every lady and gentleman wishing to pro- ting apart Thursday, the 30th of the present vide themselves with articles affording them | month as a day of thanksgiving to Almighty so much comfort during the approaching rig-orous season. CHARGE OF WEATHER. - Since Saturday, we stoves, overcoats, and warming garments positively necessary. Blankets, heavy counterance, the trees are nearly stripped of their $3,400. leaves, frost has whitened the fields and house-tops, and those unmistakable signs of cold weather, blue noses, appear on the streets. Certainly winter is coming.

No LIQUORARY CHANGE.—In a short ramble through the city this morning, we found the taverns and restaurants open as usual, no change whatever appearing, to the eye of the observer. They may be only open, however, and not selling. Mercury tells us that:

"In reply to an interrogatory respecting liquor licenses, our city register says: "The only license to sell liquor is to grocers to sell by the pint, and not to be drank in the house. Tavern licenses will also be issued. The question of their right to sell liquor will have, I suppose, to be settled by the court."

WILLIAM P. ELLIOT.—We regret to have to announce the sudden death of this gentleman, who died of apoplexy, at his residence in this city, on Friday afternoon. Mr. Elliot was an Office was designed by him. For many years he discharged in an acceptable and able manner the duties of surveyor and engineer of this city, and of late years has been extensively known as a patent agent.

WARTS FIXING.—The hydrant at the corner of Fourteenth street and Pennsylvania avenue, has been out of repair for some time past. At present the spout is entirely gone. It is a Ward, whose duty we think it is to attend to such matters, would let a hydrant, in such a public place, with such a fine flow of water, men, Mr. Commissioner!

No AMUSEMENT EXCEPT A GRAND BALL .-The panorama of the Deluge has been taken to Alexandria, and Julien's Burlesque Opera Troupe passed through here to-day for the same place. Washington is now deserted by the shows, but we have a grand ball to-night given by the Northern Liberties Fire Company at Odd-Fellows' Hall This fete of our night at Odd Fellows' Hall.

OFFICERS ELECTED. - The "Washington Building Association" have re-elected Nicholas Callan, Esq., President; John E. Kendall, Vice President; George M. Davis, Treasurer; and J. P. Dickenson, Secretary. The money sold at 342 per cent. premium, and the Society is in a flourishing condition.

A LOVING WIFE .- Last evening, a party of disorderly persons were arrested by the police and guards, and taken to the guardhouse. The wife of one of the party came to the Cap tain of the Guard, and paid the fine and costs for one man, not her husband, and let her spouse remain the entire night in the cell and go to the farm this morning.

A BRIDGE FOR ROCK CREEK .- The committee, composed of the Mayor, (Silas H. Hill, Esq., acting in that capacity,) Mr. Magruder, of the Board of Alderman, and Mr. Barr, of the Board of Common Council, appointed to select a plan for a bridge for Rock Creek, have selected the plan of Messrs. Stone & Quigley, of Philadelphia. It is on the Howe principle, costs $4,000, and includes five iron rails to separate foot passengers from vehicles.

John Stall, German, deranged; jail. John Dudy, Irish, profane and disorderly; workhouse 30 days. Thomas C. Wilson, D. C., dunk lying in the street; do. Michael Cary, Irish, pro fanity, &c.; fine and cost. A number of lodgers were in for protection, and were discharged this morning.

MR. ELLIOT'S FUNERAL POSTPONED .- This morning was the time appointed for the burial of our late fellow-citizen, W. P. Elliott, Esq. The company had assembled, the coaches were on the spot, and preparations were making to start, when signs were discovered in the appearance of the body which induced the belief in the company that life was not extinct. The company was dismissed, and Dr May sent for. We met the Doctor on his way to Mr. E.'s residence, and he informed us that there could be no doubt of the death of Mr. E. for he was present Friday when he expired.

REMAINS OF THE HON. T. BURT .- The body of the Hon. T. Burt, late the new Governor of Nebraska, arrived here on Saturday morning, in the cars, and was placed in one of the lodges of the Capitol Grounds. This afternoon, at 4 o'clock, the Clerks of the Auditor's department, of which he was formerly the Chief, will escort his remains to the Southern steamboat, en route for South Carolina.

THE TAVERNS, ORDINARIES OF RESTAU-RANTS.—The licenses were to re-issued for the taverns and restaurants for this city under the old law, and under these licenses they are doing business, as usual. There were fifteen lisences issued this morning.

GEORGETOWN CORRESPONDENCE.

GEORGETOWN, Nov. 6, 1854.

Every portion of Trinity church was, yester day, crowded by our citizens, and many from Washington, to enjoy the rich musical entertainment and hear the discourses of the talented Mr. McGuire, president of Georgetown also quite a crowd, especially in the evening, to hear the talented Professor Hannem, of Baltimore; and at the Methodist Protestant The other churches were all served by their very generally may truly be set down as a church-going people; and were it not for a few plague spots, made such by a few persons who neither fear God, or respect man or the laws of our corporation, which ferbid the prosecution of the traffic in which they are engaged on the Sabbath day, we doubt whether a more moral city could be found any where in this section of the Union.

The following items will give some faint idea of the almost unprecedented advance in the velue of lands in Alexandria and Fairfax counties during the past few years. Eighty-four acres lying near the Crossroads was sold some weeks since for $5,500 or upwards of $65 per acre, which was purchased fifteen years ago at less than $8, and 83 acres at $44 per acre; which was purchased nine years ago at $10. This, we believe, is about a fair specimen of the general advance, in real property, through all of the above named section of > BURDON BURROW'S ELIXIR VITE.-Its virtues have been endorsed by DIVINES, EDITORS, LAWYERS, CHEMISTS, and other eminent individuals. By the MASONIC and ODD FELLOWS' LODGES of Norfolk. By 5,000 citizens of the city of Norfolk and town of Portsmouth, and every of the city of Norfolk and town of Portsmouth, and every one of their 25,000 inhabitants, are living witness of its extraordinary virtues upon themselves or some friend and acquaintance. Remember certificates of cures performed in this city, where the medicine is prepared, are alone published. Numerous persons take it every spring and fall, and all who have adopted so wise a course require no other medicines, and the testimony of all after using a few bottles is, I have derived more benefit from its use than from all the medicines I ever drugged my system with. If there are worms in the body it will kill and expel them. It will remove and cure the worst carbuncle, and if drank freely during inflammations, mortification can never ensue.

BURROW'S ELIXIB VITAL

Extracts from an editorial notice in the Portsmouth, Va.,
Globe, July 13, 1854.

The Editor says: In this community this medicine scarcely requires a notice, it has been so often tested and its virtues so well known from the numerous cases of its successful use that it is sold now just as readily without preserve. tues so well known from the numerous cases of its successful use, that it is sold now just as readily without prescription or recommendation for the diseases for which it is recommended, as quinine is for chills.

In the local column of the Norfolk Daily Courier, the Editor in speaking of this preparation says: It is certainly a great medicine, and within our own knowledge has restored those who were considered beyond all human aid. Time would fail to enumerate those cured of the various Chronic Diseases, Nervous Disorders, Ulcers, Putrid Throat, Fevers, Syphilis, Dyspepsia, Incapacitated Youths, Ague and Fever, Ac., ad infinitum.

He has on exhibition there some choice specimens of the new art of Daguerreotyping in Oil, which for beauty and excellence are incomparable. There is a portrait executed, in this last style, of President Pierce, that reflects great credit on the artist, every lineament thereof giving a life like expression.
